

Subject: Questions re Peter Hargitay

Date: Thursday, April 3, 2008 15:18

From: Andrew Jennings <andrew-jennings@btconnect.com>

To: Adrian Bevington adrian.bevington@TheFa.com

Cc: Brian Barwick brian.barwick@thefa.com, Jane Bateman jane.bateman@thefa.com, More...

Hello Adrian:

I am preparing an article for publication in this weekend's issue of the Sunday Herald and would be grateful if you would assist with these questions.

Is the FA aware that Mr Peter Hargitay's ECN company is registered in Limassol, Cyprus? Is the FA happy about this?

What is the relationship between Mr Peter Hargitay and the ABI Agency of 81 Lavaterstrasse, Zurich? (He currently gives an ABI number as his point of contact in Zurich)

There are overwhelming similarities between the biog/CV that Mr Hargitay currently distributes and the biog/CV of the 'senior partner & managing partner offshore business' featured on the abi companies website at:

<http://www.abicompanies.com/home.htm>

Does Mr Hargitay deny that he is this person?

Will the FA be using the advertised 'surveillance' skills of the ABI company to monitor the FIFA ExCo members who will vote on which country hosts the 2018 World Cup?

It is important that I receive the FA's response by 18.00 on Friday April 4. In case you are not receiving emails today or are vacationing, I am copying this to the email addresses I have for:

Brian Barwick, Jane Bateman, Andrin Cooper and Simon Johnson,

I am also copying this to Peter Hargitay's old ECN email address.

And also to the Herald Sports Desk.

Best wishes,

Andrew Jennings

(And . . . I really do think that England bidding for 2018 is a great idea - and I hope it succeeds)