Hello Mr. Andrew Jennings,

I have just received your mail about the report you are about to make and the questions you would like me to response to. While appreciating your professional judgement in giving me the opportunity to response thereby hearing from the other side, I wish to inform you that I have been out of Nigeria for sometime now and will only be back home by weekend of 26th jan. therefore, I can only respond to your questions next week. Remember I am a civil servant guided by rules and regulations therefore I will have to inform my employers before giving you details.

For now what I can tell you is that by the time you have the facts you will be better informed and educated on the real situation of Nigerian sports because most of the things you read are more of character assassinations deliberate lies just to malign individuals. I would have loved that you personally visit Nigeria or send one of your staff to have real first hand information. For instance my house was build on a piece of land that cost me less than 30,000 pounds while you have the impresion that it cost 500,000 pounds. How I wish I have such money. Also talking about monies stolen during the hosting of the 8th All Africa Games of which I was involved, I would like you to see the audited books to convience you of the real facts. I hope you will hae the courage and time to do investigative journalism. I have read some of your works and I hope you will make a good work of this one. you will also be schoked to realise that the under 17 budget was quoted out of context, is like adding the budget of building roads, airport, and rail lines by south africa to the loc budget.

Anyway, as I mentioned I would like you to do a factual reporting of nNigerian sports for posterity I believe that at your age and experience on the job you should not be interested in blackmailing because you have reputation to protect. I will be available for any infomation you might require.

Thanks.

Dr. Amos Adamu
